Next Meeting:
July 7, 2011

Helen Widener

Joan Wilson, VP-Programs & Workshops, grammyscreations@tx.rr.com

We will not be having any workshops in July as summer days are for fun and family. We will, however, have a wonderful program for our Thursday evening Guild Meeting. Helen Ogden Widener will be sharing the history of Elizabeth Patton Crockett, wife of Alamo Hero, David Crockett. Helen was granted permission by the Alamo's board to photograph a quilt made by Elizabeth. Her research of the family, their relationships, and the many challenges of their time makes for a very interesting look at history being made. She will also discuss how she replicated the "Crockett" quilt.

If you haven't taken workshops, you don't know what you're missing

It's your BEST OPPORTUNITY to learn from those who developed the technique, wrote the books, designed the patterns, fabrics, etc. and at a VERY REASONABLE PRICE. A great example of this was our June lecture and workshops with Marti Michell. Marti and her husband were the first to develop and package kits and publish patterns and quilting books that were available to quilt shops. Marti is truly one of the pioneers of the quilting industry. Using her many talents, techniques and tools, the workshop attendees were able to get all their questions answered and went away with a feeling of having accomplished a lot.

August Program & Workshops - Pepper Cory

Why don't you give it a try in August? We will have Pepper Cory from Beaufort, NC as our guest speaker. Pepper has been a quilter since 1972 and has had articles on quilting published in numerous periodicals. "Quilter's Newsletter Magazine", "Traditional Quiltworks", "American Patchwork & Quilting" to name just a few. Maybe you even have some of her quilting books in your collection. Books like "Signature Quilts", "Pepper Cory Quilting Pattern Collection", "Quilting Designs from the Amish" and "65 Drunkard's Path Variations" are just some of her books.

Pepper's lecture will be "On the Trail of the Drunkard's Path" which will be a combination of slides and trunk show. She will share the history of this favorite quilt pattern and the many turns it can take. Her Friday workshop will be "Mastering Quilt Marking". Get your answers to questions like: "What are the best marking tools to mark designs on my quilt? OK, I marked this top a year ago – how do I get the marks off? What's the best quilting pattern for a scrap quilt?...and more. Bring your questions, a quilt you want help with design decisions and/or an antique quilt you'd like to use as inspiration for your next quilting project. Saturday, Pepper will be presenting her "Meteor Shower" workshop. This is a great opportunity to learn her techniques for building a block of Drunkard's Path and 8 Pointed Stars. You'll be amazed at the vast number of designs that can be assembled.

Don't forget to check out our website for a list of all the speakers we have scheduled through 2012. If there is someone special you feel would like to hear, just let me know via email (at the top of this article) and I'll check them out!

What to bring to meeting:

- Membership Card
- Library Books you've borrowed
- Items for "Bring 'n Brag"
- Money - to purchase a block contest packet or sign up for an upcoming workshop.
- Completed membership renewal form + payment

Honoring Helena Hibbs

Discussion has begun to choose an appropriate way for the Guild to memorialize Mrs. Hibbs in a significant way.

Members are invited to submit their suggestions for appropriate ways to memorialize Helena Hibbs to Guild President Marla Kelsey via email (forgetmenotquilts@hotmail.com) or to attend the June Board Meeting to participate in the discussion.

The meeting will be held on Thursday, June 23rd, at 7:00pm in the classroom at the JoAnns Fabric Store, Preston/Forest in Dallas. The classroom is off to the right near the home dec fabrics. If attending the Board meeting, Marla has requested RSVP's. If the group of individuals planning to attend exceeds the size of the meeting space, we will try to find a larger meeting location.

2011-12 Guild Officers

Did you vote, did your candidates win? Well the balloting is over and the winners are ready to take on their duties for the Guild. The winners won unanimously. Yes, each and every one of them were elected. It is obvious that our members felt that we had the perfect slate of officers for 2011-2012.

Bold colors and simplistic designs of Amish quilts combine to make striking quilts. Fabric Scraps + Your Time = Food for Hungry

Marcia Wood, VP Community Service

This spring the Quilter’s Guild of Dallas had an opportunity to serve our community in a new way.

Some months ago various guild members constructed a bright, queen sized quilt to be donated to one the charities we regularly support. After the beautiful, mostly red, string-pieced quilt was completed, the original planned recipient no longer had a need for the quilt. So, the quilt was stored with other community service resources until a new, appropriate home could be identified.

We are pleased to share that the quilt was donated to the North Texas Food Bank and was sold at a silent auction as part of the Taste of the NFL: The Ultimate Dallas Cowboy Tailgate Party.

In a letter of thanks from the North Texas Food Bank Angela’s story was shared. A single mother with three children, working two jobs to make ends meet became ill and was unable to work. With limited resources at her disposal, she was so thankful for the food provided for her family through the North Texas Food Bank.

Who knew that left over fabric scraps plus willing hands could feed hungry families?

Shadows for June

- Janie Merritt's father passed away on June 9th.
- Paula Jean Jackson has been confined to a wheelchair for the past five years as a result of polio contracted at age 13. At 81, dementia has ended the sewing and quilting she loved dearly. Mother was a member of the Dallas Quilters Guild for roughly fifteen years. Her son, Glen (d.glenjackson@gmail.com), and husband, Jack (jwjhoses@tx.rr.com), would be happy to correspond with anyone who wants to know more about her health or send a card.
